The Academy of Lactation Policy and Practice (ALPP) is a non-profit organization that provides the Certified Lactation Counselor® (CLC®) national certification program in breastfeeding and human lactation for nurses, physicians, dietitians, WIC personnel, peer counselors, independent lactation counselors and others. To date, there are more than 22,000 CLCs in the U.S. and territories. Currently, the certification exam is available remotely.

ALPP has created a fee schedule for the online ALPP CLC exam. ALPP uses the country of residence not the country of origin. The tiers are based on the World Bank’s Indicator for Gross National Income. Residents of Tier B countries pay 75% of the exam fee. Residents of Tier C countries pay 50% of the exam fee. The prices are in USD and based on exchange rates on the day that the credit card was processed.

The exam is presented in English only, however, an English translation dictionary is permitted after it is reviewed by a remote proctor. Technology requirements must be met in order to qualify to take the online CLC exam.

Be sure your address reflects your current country of residence. In addition, when you register for the exam, be sure to put your Tier country in the “Notes” section with a request for the discount. Discounts will not be given retroactively.
